

The Dublin Art Book

The city through the eyes of its artists

Edited by Emma Bennett

Keynote

The fifth book in the successful 'The city through the eyes of its artists' series, The Dublin Art Book showcases the Irish capital in gorgeous paintings, illustrations and drawings by over 50 artists.

Description

This book is a tribute to Dublin, an impressive artistic collection taking the reader on a tour through this most vibrant city. From historic Trinity College and the iconic Ha'penny Bridge to the lively pub scene and secret hidden corners, Dublin's artists highlight its beauties in the most unique way.

The Author

Emma is the editor of the city art book series. She is an artist, whose fascination with design and recycling inspires her beautiful collages as in the cover of this lovely book.

Review Quotes

"Absolutely beautiful!"

Marian Keyes, Award-winning Irish Novelist

"Dublin City architecture has always had a certain magnetism and appeal delineated so beautifully by the diverse images of our contemporary artists. A must-see publication."

Ronnie Delany, Olympic Champion and Freeman of Dublin

"My jewel and darling Dublin has another diamond in her crown, this beautiful collection of images does our great capital justice."

Joe Duffy, Award-winning broadcaster, RTE Radio

"I fell in love with Dublin the day I arrived, the only love affair in which I have never wavered! I so welcome this wonderful celebration of a great city."

Anne Doyle, Irish journalist, presenter and broadcaster

"We need to see the places we live in through the eyes of artists... to look up and see the beauty."
